

Ideal Generic Pathway for patients with suspected Chronic Myeloid Leukaemia (CML)

Maximum wait (days)

Referral received in secondary care

Haematologist consultation

- Medical History
- Physical Examination
- Blood Test
- Molecular Tests

Is there evidence of Leukaemia?

No → Manage as appropriate and remove from cancer pathway

Bone Marrow & molecular tests taken

CML confirmed

16-18 years old – refer to Paediatric Oncology (GNCC) for treatment and TYA MDT for discussion
19-24 years old – continue on tumour site specific pathway & refer to TYA MDT for discussion.

Specialist MDT review of results, plan treatment and consider suitability for clinical trials

Discuss results with patient and agree treatment options

Targeted Therapy Tyrosine Kinase Inhibitors (TKI)

Long term monitoring of disease

Earliest Clinically Appropriate Date for commencement of subsequent treatment