

MACMILLAN UROLOGY NURSE SPECIALIST

Who are the Macmillan Urology Nurse Specialists?

Our names are Alison Marchant and Helen Sunderland

We are based at Harrogate District Hospital and cover Harrogate and its surrounding areas.

We have experience in cancer nursing and we specialise in the care and support of people with urological disease. This includes cancer of the kidney, bladder, prostate and testis. We work closely with the doctors involved in your care.

How can we help you?

We can give you and your carers...

- An opportunity to talk through the information you have been given.
- Further information about your cancer and your treatment options so that informed choices can be made.
- Information about the support available to you, either physical, emotional, spiritual or social.
- Specialist nursing advice throughout your care.
- A link with other professionals involved in your care, or who may be able to help you.

How can you contact us?

If you are currently attending Harrogate District Hospital, ask the person looking after you to bleep us through the hospital switchboard.

If you are calling from home, ring directly on 01423 553318 or 01423 553317. If we are not available, please leave a message on the answer phone. We will get back to you as soon as possible, though this may not be the same day. Our normal working hours are 9.00 am – 5.00 pm, Monday to Friday.

About Macmillan Cancer Support

Macmillan Cancer Support works with a wide range of agencies and health professionals to provide better services for patients with cancer and their carers, from the point of diagnosis. It works in partnership with the National Health Service to improve the provision of mainstream healthcare for people with cancer and their families.
