We can offer you:

Skills Development

With a variety of over 350 roles available, our placement scheme can help you to build essential transferrable skills such as communication and teamwork, as well as specialist skills, such as wheelchair training, administrative skills, gardening and more.

Workplace Reference

Upon successful completion of a minimum of 50 hours of volunteering with our Volunteer Team, we would be able to act as a reference on your behalf, when applying for future positions.

Support

We can also offer essential support to enable you to complete a volunteering placement, including assistance with transport costs.

Workplace Experience

Undertaking a volunteer placement can provide essential workplace experience which can support future job applications and career progression, as well as providing pathways into apprenticeships and further education.

Chance to Make a Difference

Volunteers are invaluable within the NHS, allowing us to enhance the services we are able to provide and also to represent the diversity of the communities we support.

We will ask you to:

Commit

Volunteer placements are highly sought after. We would ask all volunteers to firmly commit to completing at least 50 hours of volunteering. If you do not feel you could commit to this, or if you need further support, please speak to your Careers Advisor.

Do your best

You will be working alongside hardworking NHS colleagues and we would therefore ask that you perform your volunteering duties to the best of your abilities. Your role descriptor will be clear as to what is expected of you and your commitment to meeting those duties is invaluable.
